The tentative date for the ride-along has been set for March 29, with a rain date of April 5. Fall 2012 Southern Clothing Market Will Be Held at the Embassy Suites Hotel Join Us On February 4th, 5th, and 6th

The Fall 2012 Southern Clothing Market will be held February 4th, 5th and 6th at the Embassy Suites Hotel, located at 4800 South Tryon Street at Woodlawn (Billy Graham Parkway) in South Charlotte, North Carolina. From I-77, exit 6B and you will see the Embassy on the corner.

We will be celebrating our 23rd year at the great Embassy Suites Hotel. We are lucky to be able to call the Embassy our home. They always make an effort to be sure everyone is made to feel at home in such pleasant surroundings. Take the time in expressing your appreciation to the fine Embassy staff and management. They always look forward to the "Men's Show" coming and constantly tell the MAC office how great it is to have us.

We are also celebrating our 72nd year as the Men's Apparel Club of the Carolinas, Inc. and thanks go out to those who have made this one of the greatest organizations in the country. Let's not forget the cofounding fathers, Brick Waddell and Wilson O. Woods, who could see a great future for us, when they got together in 1940 to form the MAC's. They are smiling down from up above, we are sure.

The market opens on Saturday, February 4th at 9 AM and closes at 6:00 PM. Remember, for those retailers who would like to work earlier or later, the salesmen will be glad to accommodate you. For your convenience, the registration office in Suite 706 is open on Friday, February 3rd. Some salesmen get started on Friday, and even on Thursdays, so get an early start and make your appointments.

Saturday evening, Bobby Ryder, our "Saxophonist Extrodinaire" from Hilton Head, will be entertaining us from 6:00 PM until 8:00 PM. He is one of those truly talented professionals who will captivate an audience with his energy and talent. He has recorded five CDs, "Bobby Ryder and Casablanca," "Back to the Shore," "Sax in the City," "Thanks for the Memories," and his latest release "Keeping It Alive," recorded live at the Jazz Corner in Hilton Head, SC.

On Sunday, we will be holding the "Big Super Bowl Party, which starts at 6:00 PM. Super Bowl XLVI should be a great game, and it looks like Green Bay will be back to do battle with some worthy opponent. Of course we will have a "big screen TV" for your viewing pleasure, along with multiple TVs they already have. There will be great food and drinks to go along with the festivities. The complimentary bar is open from 6:00 until 8:00 PM with a cash bar beginning at 8:00 PM. It is always a fun time, so don't miss it.

On Monday the market opens at 9:00 AM and closes at 6:00 PM. For those who are staying over, the comp bar opens at 5:30 PM. So, get together with your friends and boast about the great market you had.

On Saturday, Sunday and Monday, we will be serving lunch in the atrium for our salesmen and retailers, from 12:00 Noon until 2:00 PM. Retailers, don't forget to pick up your lunch tickets in Suite 706 when you register.

We will be holding a raffle to support St. Jude Children's Research Hospital at this market. There are some great prizes up for grabs, so don't forget to purchase your $10.00 Raffle Ticket when you check in. This is a very needed project, so please help us in our support. Read the article on the left and pg 8 & 15 for more details.

Again, we ask for your cooperation in not bringing children under the age of 12 years. Thank you for your cooperation. 🍀

Bob Belutty shares the following words or wisdom...

The most important thing in a man is not what he knows, but what he is. It's most important not to know, but to be. The majority of our movements are mechanical. But, if we can arrive to have a few moments of attentiveness, we can become very, very rich. - NARCISO YEPES, Guitarist

President's Message

Dear Retailers and Fellow Members,

Time seems to be rushing by, and we are excited about the Southern Clothing Market fast approaching us. February 4th thru the 6th at the Embassy Suites should be a very exciting market for us, after going through a very challenging year. The Christmas and Holiday season has come and gone and for some of our retailers it was a better season than last and many worked hard to make numbers.

The good thing about a new year is that it does give us hope for a better year and from many indications it may very well be a better year. We will work hard to make it a great show to start off the fall season and look forward to seeing our retail friends, and of course, our fellow sales people.

We hope that we have a great show and if there is anything we can do to make it better, please don't hesitate to let us know. Larry Holland and Dianne Norton stand ready to serve you and if I can help, please feel free to call on me!!!!

Happy New Year and may 2012 be a great one for all of us. God Bless You and travel safely!!!

Sincerely,
Gary O'Malley

KEN MCDOWELL IS ON THE MEND

Ken McDowell underwent thoracic surgery in September, to correct some imperfections in one of his heart valves. At the time, the doctor had to install a temporary pacemaker to assist Ken's pulse rate, which was running between 32-36 beats per minute. That is all behind Ken and he is right on schedule with his recovery. Doctors say he is nothing short of a miracle, due to the circumstances and how his body has been able to handle all that has happened to him. Ken says he is feeling much better and hopes to be able to visit during the February Southern Clothing Market.

BOB GOODMAN UNDER GOES MEDICAL PROCEDURE

Bob Goodman lived with a heart murmur for years and when it became a problem, his doctor suggested that he go into the hospital for a procedure. He had a leaky aorta valve and on October 10 underwent surgery to perform a triple heart bypass operation. He stayed in the hospital for 5 days and was released. He says he is feeling great and is looking forward to the February 4-6 Fall 2012 Southern Clothing Market.

FRANK WHARAM HAS HIS HEALTH PROBLEMS

Sometime in July Frank Wharam was diagnosed with Leukemia. Then in September

he had to go into the hospital with heart problems. The doctors thought at first the leukemia was causing the difficulties, but after extensive research they discovered he had three blocked arteries and now, after treatment, Frank is getting much better. He has to go in often for treatment for his Leukemia, but he is planning to be at the February market.

The Men's Apparel Club of the Carolinas extends sincere condolences to those who have lost a loved one.

CHARLES STEVEN ADAMS "Sonny"

(May 17, 1940 - January 7, 2012)

Charles Steven "Sonny" Adams, age 71, of Charlotte, passed away on Saturday morning, January 7, 2012 surrounded by loved ones at Carolinas Medical Center's Dickson Heart Unit after a courageous month long battle.

Mr. Adams was born May 17, 1940 in Rutherfordton and was one of two children born to the late Edith Carver Adams and Steve Clay Adams. Steve was raised in Salisbury, NC and graduated from Boyden High School. After high school he served in the US Air Force, worked at Delta Airlines as a ticket agent, as a salesman for Guardian Glass and American Air Filters, and was a sales rep for Anabolic Labs before opening and running his own chiropractic distribution company, Adams/Anabolic Distributing, for over 37 years.

He was preceded in death by his much-loved sister, Jane Nail.

Steve was the dearly loved husband of Sandra Fesperman Adams for over 49 years. He will forever be remembered by his beloved children, Mark and Paul Adams; treasured grandchildren Brandon, Jonathan, Mikayla, Keegan, Harrison, Sullivan, and Joshua Adams; along with countless other friends and family who were blessed to know him. Steve was a member of Hickory Grove Baptist Church for over 30 years, teaching Sunday School, participating on many committees, and serving as a Deacon. He loved traveling, riding motorcycles, fishing and spending time at the beach, laughing, being with his family, and having fun with many friends.

Steve touched the lives of many people with his smile and generosity, and maintained his trademark wit all the way to the end. A service was held for family and friends on January 10, 2012 at Summersett Memorial Chapel in Salisbury. He was buried at Rowan Memorial Park with Military Honors. The family requests that donations be made to either the American Diabetes Association, the American Heart Association, or the Stroke Association

MAC Executive Director, Larry D. Holland stated, "Steve Adams had direct contact with me and the Men's Apparel Club, and he was a friend and a fine person. He was a member of the Hornets Nest Sertoma Club (along with myself), and kept up with my racing activities. His wife Sandy served as bookkeeper for the MAC's for several years, and always did a first class job. Both Sandy and Steve were deep friends with Doris Hildebrand who most of you know also worked for the MAC's for many years."

Steve will be missed by his family and many friends.

Former MAC Member Jim Robinson Is Retired

he began working for Belk's (after school) in his hometown of Savannah, Georgia. In 1959 he went to work for Nunn-Bush Shoe Company in one of their retail departments. In 1961 he was transferred to Roanoke, Virginia at the age of 19 years to manage two lease departments. In 1964 he left Nunn-Bush and went to work for Bostonian Shoe Company in one of their retail departments at Davidson's in Roanoke. In 1971 Bostonian pulled him out of retailing and moved him to the wholesale division.

Jim started showing at the MAC Markets in Charlotte in October 1971 and remained a member until 1988, having traveled for Bostonian, Craddock-Terry and Bata Shoe Companies during that time.

After Jim left the road, he went back to retailing with Lebo's in Charlotte where he remained until he returned to Savannah in 2000. He worked for Globe Shoe Company there, until he retired in 2006. He still lives in Savannah.

Jim loved the MAC organization and devoted lots of his time and energy helping in many different projects. He enjoyed his time as "Bartender" for the cocktail parties. His job was to oversee the cocktail hour each evening, which means he had the help of many new MAC members, who served as a means of part of their initiation into the organization. Most all who served on the bar, loved doing it, because a bartender is everyone's friend. It was a natural way for a "new member" to meet other MAC members and lots of retailers.

He also served on the MAC Board of Directors for awhile, and later would serve as a Vice-President until he left the road. Larry Holland, MAC

Executive Director stated, "Jim was deeply involved in the operation of the organization while he was a member, and really enjoyed doing it. He was a fun person and had lots of friends during his time here."

Jim is currently going through some health problems, but he is doing battle like the trooper that he is. Larry Holland recently stopped by to see Jim in Savannah and said Jim is the same as when he was a MAC member.

Jim would love to hear from any of the old MAC friends he made over the year. You can contact Jim by writing to 103 Bellingrath Court, Savannah, GA 31419, or give him a call at (912) 920-8047.

Jim says he can always say "It Was Great To Be One of the Carolina MACs." We were glad to have him with us. 🌱

A celebration of well-dressed men

SCENE & HEARD
by Olivia Fortson

Taylor, Richards & Conger founding partners Richard Pattison, Glen Taylor and Lyn Conger opened their men's clothing store in 1986. To celebrate their 25th anniversary, they planned a series of events at the Phillips Place store throughout October, including a display of mannequins dressed in men's fashions from the past 25 years.

For an after-hours party, hosted by TRC for their customers, the mannequins were replaced with striking male models. Since so many women came to the store over the years shopping for the men in their lives, the savvy businessmen also opened an upscale boutique for them within the store called TRC Woman, so there were also gorgeous models showing off those designs as well.

Super Bowl picks: Our experts weigh in ARLINGTON, Texas — Can Ben Roethlisberger lead the Pittsburgh Steelers to their third Super Bowl title in six years (and seventh overall)? Or will Aaron Rodgers and the high-flying Packers passing game soar to Green Bay's first NFL title since the 1996 season?

How do our experts see it? The Packers are big favorites, but it's far from unanimous. The only thing we know for sure is that everyone has an opinion on the game.

John Clayton: Steelers, 30-28

As was the case in a one-point Pittsburgh victory over Green Bay in 2009, the Steelers' Super Bowl experience will give them the edge. Ben Roethlisberger will need a fourth-quarter drive to win the game.

Kevin Seifert: Packers, 27-19

The indoor conditions are ideal for a Packers team that has won five consecutive "elimination games." Aaron Rodgers is ready to take this team the rest of the way.

James Walker: Steelers, 27-24

Maurkice Pouncey's ankle injury is a concern. But I still have trouble pic (4) MLK Day was not recognized in Arizona; king against Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger and his 10-2 postseason record.

Mike Sando: Packers, 27-13

Let's go with Green Bay on the theory that Aaron Rodgers might pull a Steve Young with a breakout Super Bowl performance, casting his own legacy after following a legend.

Matt Mosley: Steelers, 27-24

It's not Aaron Rodgers' time yet. The Steelers become a dynasty as Big Ben throws the game-winning touchdown pass to Emmanuel Sanders.

Michael Wilbon: Steelers, 28-24

As great as Tom Brady and Peyton Manning have been for an entire decade, I think "Big Ben" and Aaron Rodgers are now the two best quarterbacks playing in the league. Roethlisberger is still underrated by his peers and the people who watch football, and we're going to be reminded of that Sunday.

Greg Garber: Packers, 27-20

Aaron Rodgers and those dangerous wide receivers (and, suddenly, the hint of a running game) on a fast track: Even the Steelers' stout defense will have difficulty containing the Packers.

Rick Reilly: Packers, 24-16

Aaron Rodgers is MVP. Brett Favre is ignored. It's the equivalent of the girlfriend burning all her ex-fiance's stuff while her new boyfriend drinks his scotch.

Matt Williamson: Steelers, 23-20

This is going to be a very close game and a Super Bowl for the ages. Pittsburgh's experience on this stage will pay off heavily in the first half. The Steelers' defense will be very difficult to come back against, especially once it forces the Packers to be one-dimensional without a running game. But Aaron Rodgers will get the game to overtime, where defense will rule. After a grueling battle, Pittsburgh squeaks one out; RB Rashard Mendenhall is the game's MVP.

Jeffri Chadiha: Packers, 31-28

The Steelers have more Super Bowl experience but the Packers have the momentum. Unless Aaron Rodgers sustains an injury or Dom Capers loses his touch in mixing up his blitz packages, Green Bay is the team to beat.
